HOTELS.

LOOKOUT MOUNTAIN HOUSE, Near Chattanooga, Tenn.

THERE is no more pleasant spot for a Summer residence than the summit of Lookout Mountain. The scenery is most beautiful and affords great delight to the lovers of nature.

Looking to the North and East, from the MOUNTAIN HOUSE, a varied landscape is seen. To the left flows the placid Tennessee, winding in and out among the hills, till far away in the distance its waters seem to blend with the clouds. Wooded hills and rich valleys, with waving fields of corn and grain, extend as far as the eye can reach in the horizon, where the faint outlines of the Great Smoky Mountains are seen traced upon the sky.

It has all the telegraph and mail facilities, being but an hour's ride from Chattanooga, and is a First Class Hotel.

Here in the peaceful days before the war, the beauty and intelligence of the South came every Summer to breathe the pure mountain air, and it will soon again be the favorite Summer resort of all who, tired of the dust and heat of crowded cities, desire relaxation of mind and invigoration of body, amid the finest scenery in the country.

A Card.

WE will at once rebuild our warehouse, and will have it completed by the 15th of September, but by the first day of that month we will be ready to receive goods on store.

The sheds will be divided into fire proof compartments by brick walls, and covered with tin. Those who have patronized us for the last two seasons, and those who may have proposed to do so the approaching one, may rest assured we will be ready for them.

We design establishing a Cotton Compress in connection with our warehouse, upon an adjacent lot, which will be ready by the 1st of October or sooner. The proximity of our establishment to the river renders the handling of cotton so convenient that we can transfer cotton for shipment by river free of drayage. The advantage of the position is equal to one drayage on all cotton sent for compressment from other warehouses, while on all cotton in our warehouse for compressment there can be two drayages saved, since it would be as easy for us to transfer it from our shed to the Compress as to turn it out in the ordinary way for transfer by drays.

—The Indianola (Texas) Bulletin is informed that the grass is remarkably fine on the prairies, which is a sure indication at this season of the year, that the cattle will do well throughout the winter.

—Horses are commanding a great deal of attention in the world. An international veterinary congress is to be held at Zurich, Switzerland, commencing the last of October. The governments of thirteen countries will send representatives.

—There are in circulation at the south counterfeit five cent pieces made of lead, with a coat of quicksilver, very skilfully executed, and well calculated to deceive. They may, however, be easily detected by the difference of weight between the bogus and the genuine.

Disraeli is growing old but not gray; his hair is said to be still as black as a raven's wing, and it curls.

The prince imperial of France is again doomed by his physician to an early death. As a last hope it is said he is coming to the hot springs in Arkansas, in charge of the imperial physician.

Col. Redcliff, the newly appointed commandant of the royal artillery forces in the province of Ontario, arrived from England on Friday.

STATE NEWS.

—From the Union and Dispatch of Sunday, we learn that the first university for colored men ever organized in the south, was to open in Nashville on Monday, with an attendance of over one hundred students. It is named Fisk University, after the infamous fellow who for some time presided over the freedman's bureau in the kingdom of Brownlow. The same paper records the arrival at Nashville last week of new cotton from Giles and Maury counties.

The New Dominion starts on its career with the brightest auguries of success and happiness. The first nominations for members of the new parliament were attended at Montreal with a fierce riot, and the liberal member would hardly have got home alive if the police had not given him a strong escort. They are rather a barbarous people up there beyond the St. Lawrence, and we see little hope for their regeneration, unless they can be absorbed into the United States.

We wonder whether HORACE GREELEY supposes that anybody in the wide world, under any government whatever, envies the condition of the people of this misgoverned republic, or that anybody in Canada has the least desire to taste the apples of Sodom of annexation to the United States.

Regeneration, by being absorbed into the United States, the dam of military despotisms! The Southern States are now undergoing the process of "regeneration." They are indeed being "born again," and every baby is a negro. There is no knowing what Canada might become by the process.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

CHARLESTON, September 17.—General Canby has issued the following: "Paragraph 2 of General Order No 32, dated May 30, 1867, is modified to read as follows: All citizens assessed for taxes and who shall have paid taxes for the current year, and who are qualified and who have been duly registered as voters, are hereby declared as qualified for jurors. It shall be a sufficient ground of challenge to the competency of a person drawn as a juror that he has not been duly registered as a voter. Such right of a challenge may be exercised in behalf of the people or of the accused in all criminal proceedings, and by either party in all civil actions or proceedings. Army requirements of a property qualification for jurors, in addition to the qualifications herein prescribed, are hereby abrogated. The governments of North Carolina and South Carolina are hereby authorized and empowered to order, if it should be necessary, special terms of the courts to be held for the purpose of raising and preparing jury lists and to provide for summoning jurors in accordance with the requirements of this order.

By command of BREVET MAJ.-GEN. CANBY.

RICHMOND, September 17.—The vote for the subscription of $2,000,000 to the stock in the Chesapeake and Ohio railroad was carried to-day by two thousand majority, the negroes voting for it en masse. The opponents of the measure intend contesting the legality of the question, on the ground that by the supplemental reconstruction act the negroes have no right to vote.

HAVANA, September 17.—Advices from Mexico to the 9th and Vera Cruz to the 13th inst. have been received.

Admiral Tegethoff appeared at the Mexican war office on the 4th, as a verbally authorized deputy from the relatives of the late Emperor Maximilian, to ask, in the name of humanity, the remains of the deceased. Juarez, having refused the request of Baron Magnus and other influential persons, said he could not deliver the body to Admiral Tegethoff, unless he presented the proper official documents from the relatives. When such documents were shown, he would permit the transportation of the body to Austria.

The property of Almonte, Uraga, Laos, Vanecoz, Selico and Cadoco Somero has been confiscated.

Gen. Vuhe has been condemned, as a deserter, to imprisonment for four years.

Escobedo was well received at Saltillo, and he, together with Diaz and Juarez, is considered a candidate for the presidency of the Mexican republic.

LIVERPOOL, September 17.—James Hewett & Co., of Liverpool, a firm largely engaged in American trade, suspended yesterday. The extent of their liabilities is not stated.

ARKANSAS ITEMS.

—The Daily Gazette says: Gen. Ames, Col. Goodfellow and Surgeon Smith passed through Little Rock on Monday of last week, en route to Camden to investigate the recent outrage on the proprietors of the Constitutional Eagle newspaper, by United States soldiers, with the apparent connivance of Col. Gilbert, post commander at the latter place.

—The Helena Clarion, writing of agricultural matters, says: We have, in the last few days, carefully noted the crops of three counties, viz: Phillips, St. Francis and Cross. The bright hopes of mammoth crops of cotton and corn will not be generally realized in these counties. Still both these productions, in which our people are so deeply interested, will yield a good return for the care and patience of our farming friends. In all the low lands early corn is excellent, and it is good in many places on the hills, but the late corn, as a general rule, will be next door to a failure. The cotton in the valleys is a fair average; on the hills it is stunted, and very much retarded in bloom.

—From the North Arkansas Times, published at Batesville, we cull the following on the crops: We learn from our worthy county surveyor, T. S. Carter, Esq., that a breadth of land about five miles wide, extending through Ashley and Jefferson townships, has suffered from a severe drouth, and that the crops will consequently be short in that neighborhood. We believe this is the only portion of Independence county that has suffered to any great extent from drouth this year, and feel gratified to learn, from the same competent source, that the remainder of the county will produce, at the least calculation, twice as much of both corn and cotton as it produced last year.

—From the Fort Smith Herald we learn that the cholera has entirely disappeared from the town. The same paper supplies the following: We are again called upon to record another of those melancholy affairs, which will sometimes occur in the best regulated communities. On Wednesday evening last, Mr. Columbus Johnson was shot by policeman Lock, while attempting to arrest him. Mr. Johnson died from the effects of his wounds in a few hours. We know nothing in regard to the matter save what we have learned from rumors upon the street, and as they are so varying and conflicting, we prefer to leave the matter where it properly belongs, in the hands of the judicial tribunals.

PRACTICE IN BANKRUPTCY.

The following article is taken from the "Bankruptcy Gazette," a special department in the "Internal Revenue Record," a standard publication in regard to matters to which it is devoted:

The following suggestions for practitioners in the new courts will be found useful. They have been prepared by one of the new officials:

1. Make up your petition with the eleven forms of schedules A and B in duplicate; swear to both; file one with the clerk of the court, and ask to have case referred to a register.

2. At the hour specified in the order referring the case to a register, appear before the register, to whom the case is assigned, and make oath before him that the duplicate petition and schedules which you then present to him is a true duplicate original of the petition and schedules on file with clerk, and move that it be certified correct in form. This being done, move that the petitioner be declared a bankrupt. This is done by an order made by the register, of which he will give you a certified copy. You will then move for the warrant. Some time will be required to make this out. At the time appointed call upon the register for the warrant and take it to the marshal. The marshal will require satisfactory security for his fees and disbursements for the newspaper publications, etc., which you will arrange with him. You have nothing more to do till the return day of the warrant.

3. Be very careful that your petition and schedules are written out plainly, free from all erasures, interlineations or abreviations. As the whole proceeding is strictly statutory, the statute and rules made under it must be most strictly complied with.

4. In case the register refuses to certify your petition to be correct in point of form, you will take a certified copy of the points wherein your papers were certified to be defective, and proceed to prepare amendments, or an amended petition, as may be most convenient, in duplicate. When this is done have such amendments or amended petition, etc., sworn in duplicate; then apply to the register, upon an affidavit excusing the errors, for an order to amend. Such order being allowed, obtain from the register a certified copy, and file this with one of the duplicates with the clerk. Cary the other to the register, who will examine it, and if correct, ratify it; and you then proceed as above.

ANOTHER leakage of whisky has been discovered in Brooklyn. In the bonded warehouse of A. Miller, in a lot of 200 barrels some 700 gallons have been abstracted very mysteriously.

GROVER & BAKER'S Celebrated Elastic Stitch and Lock Stitch

SEWING MACHINES.

Why the Grover & Baker Machine is Best.

1. It is more simple, durable, and less liable to derangement than others.
2. It sews from ordinary spools, and no rewinding of thread is necessary.
3. It sews with equal facility all fabrics, the most delicate and the heaviest, and with all kinds of thread, silk, cotton or linen.
4. Its seam is so strong and elastic that it never breaks, even on the bias.
5. It fastens both ends of the seam by its own operation.
6. Its seam, though cut at every sixth stitch, remains firm, and neither runs nor ravels in wear.
7. Its seam is more plump and beautiful, and retains its plumpness and beauty after washing better than any other.
8. Its seam can be removed in altering garments, after proper instruction, without picking or cutting them.
9. Watching and varying the tensions upon the threads necessary in other machines is unnecessary in this. The tension being once adjusted on the Grover and Baker Machine, any amount of sewing may be done without change.
10. It makes beautiful embroidery without any change of arrangement, simply by inserting threads of suitable sizes and colors for this purpose. It is the only machine that both embroiders and sews perfectly.

Classical and Mathematical SCHOOL FOR BOYS, In Albemarle County, Va.

H. N. B. WOOD ... Principal.
A. J. WOOD ... Associate Principal.

SECOND SESSION 1867-8.

THIS School is located one and a-half miles from Greenwood Depot on the Virginia Central Railroad and fifteen miles west of Charlottesville and the University of Virginia. The location is well known as Dr. Gessner Harrison, Rev. Wm. Dinwiddie, and Prof. Edward H. Smith formerly conducted schools at this place. Previously it was a popular summer resort, conducted by John S. Cocke, Esq. Being situated in one of the most beautiful portions of Albemarle county, in the midst of a refined and intelligent community, remote from places of dissipation, and convenient to Churches and Sabbath Schools of the leading denominations, it possesses rare advantages for a Boys' School.

The course of study is designed to be thorough and comprehensive in Ancient and Modern Languages, Mathematics and the English Branches, and also to embrace the elements of Natural and Moral Sciences and History.

The Principal was educated at the University of Virginia, and has had an experience of nearly ten years in teaching in schools of high grade in this State, including Dr. Gessner Harrison's school, Bloomfield Academy, Lynchburg Female Seminary, and Hon. R. M. T. Hunter's private school.

The Associate Principal was also educated at the University of Virginia, and has had an experience of eight years in teaching in the Southern States—formerly in Edgeworth Female Seminary, North Carolina, more recently in Sherman, Texas.

The following recommendation of our school by Professors of the University of Virginia, is respectfully submitted:

UNIVERSITY OF VIRGINIA, April 7, 1867.

In view of our personal acquaintance with Messrs. H. N. B. and A. J. Wood, we do not hesitate cordially to recommend their school to the confidence and patronage of the public.

A PROPERTY-HOLDER.

The Bulletin of the 12th contains a reply by a "Property-holder" to what it terms our "furious assault upon the landlords and property-holders of Memphis, on account of alleged high rents." The word "alleged" means that it is not true that rents are high in Memphis, or else it is used without any definite intention or any distinct idea of its force and meaning. Is it true that rents are not high in Memphis? They are, as we find on inquiry, about twice as high as they are in Louisville, where we are writing. They are enormously and excessively high; so high as to impose by far too great tax on merchants and mechanics, to enable the one to sell and the other to work, at reasonable prices. This city (Louisville) is now cheered with the presence of quite a number of merchants from Arkansas, who are here to purchase goods. Why do they pass by Memphis to come here, if they can buy as cheaply and to as good advantage in our own city?

We have not said that it is the property-holders who have ruined the city of Memphis. It would be fairer if a gentleman who comments on an article would quote the language of it, instead of seasoning it a little higher, as an excuse for making his comments more piquant. We say that high rents are one cause why Memphis can not compete with St. Louis and Louisville for the custom of the planters of the country. We repeat it. It is true; and it is absurd and idle to deny what everybody knows.

We are carrying on no war against the property-holders of Memphis. Some months ago they were assailed, and we believe a meeting of renters was held. The APPEAL had nothing to say upon the subject, except to suggest that nothing could be effected in that way. In the matter of rents, as in other matters of demand and supply, only competition will lower prices. It is true that during the dull season, rents have fallen, and it is also true that one or two property-owners voluntarily reduced their rents,—for which they deserve infinite credit. Their example was not generally followed; and there is do doubt that, with the revival of business rents will rise again, until a mechanic will have to pay, for a framed shell, with two or three rooms below and one above, a shabby kitchen and no outside conveniences, a hundred dollars a month, which was paid a year and a half ago.

High taxes, undoubtedly are another cause of high prices. For some reason or other, we pay twenty cents a pound for mutton, while it sells in Louisville for from seven to ten cents, and twenty cents per pound for beef which sells here at fifteen. A suit of clothes costs us in Memphis nearly twice as much as it would cost in a Northwestern city; and our publishers of newspapers pay seventy-five cents per thousand for composition, while the Louisville Journal and Courier pay fifty, for night and day work alike.

The "property-holder" declares that the APPEAL is not an independent journal, or, at least, that it might have been more independent, because it has not exposed the wrong and injustice perpetrated upon our community by steamboat and railroad lines which discriminate against Memphis, and in favour of Louisville, Cincinnati and St. Louis. Our impression really was that the last accusation which could be brought against the APPEAL was that of want of independence. We owe nothing in any way to the railroad or steamboat lines, nor do we know how they discriminate against Memphis. The Property-holder will find our columns open to him for the exposure of any such "wrong and injustice," and our pen ready to assist him in correcting the evil, when facts are furnished us, and not mere declamation and gabble.

Property-holder affirms that "there are scores of men, now in Memphis, who can and do obtain such loans" (in the North) "as they can judiciously use in their own pursuits." Perhaps—but we again aver that it is well known that no money can be obtained at the North on any sort of Southern security, owing to the unsettled condition of the country, and the uncertainty of the future. We did not attribute this to high rents in Memphis. Property-holder attributes the little value of securities in Memphis, to "the incendiary character of the press:" and he particularly assigns to the APPEAL its full share of responsibility for retarding the growth and prosperity of Memphis.

We have encouraged, he says, insubordination in spirit, and sometimes advised to acts contrary to the Government of the United States and the State authorities; have discouraged confidence in the present and future; and the tendency of all our teachings has been to evil. Our teachings, he thinks, are "pernicious," and have helped drive Northern men away from Memphis. We have not ordinary candor or intelligence. We curse and carp at the National Government; and Property-holder disapproves of our "continuous and insidious teaching of discontent with the constituted authorities." It is not strange, he thinks, that the APPEAL cannot borrow money at the North. The APPEAL has not made the effort. "Let the galled jade wince: our withers are unwrung."

We have denounced the usurpations of Congress, its violations of the Constitution, its establishment of military despotisms. We have exposed and demonstrated the unlawfulness of its action. We have uttered, not insidiously, but distinctly, our opinions as to negro suffrage and the disfranchisement of white men, by the "National Government," and by the faction that rules Tennessee. We propose to continue to do so, unpleasant as it may be to Radicals like Property-holder, who would like to have all men tamely submit to usurpation and oppression. We see much to discontent men with the present state of affairs; and he who is not discontented, either profits by the disorders of the times, and therefore desires them to continue, or is of a very patient spirit. We see much to alarm us and all thinking men, for the future. Those men who make fortunes and retreat northward when the storm comes, may feel no alarm. Others do; and they do not wish us "to cry Peace! Peace! when there is no peace."

That the course of the APPEAL has retarded the growth and prosperity of Memphis is sheer nonsense; unless it has done so by opening the eyes of the people to the truth, and showing them the actual condition of affairs. It is the state and condition of things which the APPEAL has exposed, or endeavored to expose, and not the APPEAL itself, that alarms capitalists and discourages all but the vultures who fatten and gorge on the distresses of the people, and make profit out of the disorders of the State.

We have said that the future is dark and gloomy. So it is; and the Present is sad and discouraging enough. We have said that we should prefer a military despotism to negro suffrage. We do prefer it. It is the lesser evil of the two. We have said that we should prefer a constitutional monarchy, or even an enlightened despotism, to the unlicensed tyranny of a mob-majority of numbers, wielded by such creatures as STEVENS, SUMNER and WADE. But the constitutional government established by the fathers, if it can ever be restored is as far superior to that of a single will, as Heaven is superior to Hell, or Conservatism to Radicalism.

As to rents in Memphis, a man has the right to demand for his property or the use of it, as high a price as he can get. That may or may not pay in the long run. It does not entitle him to anybody's gratitude; and whether it is consistent with wisdom, sound policy or public spirit, is for him to consider. It is at least true that high rents do greatly tend to retard the growth and prosperity of towns. No quantity of words, picked out because they sound vituperative, and flung together at random, can prove that untrue, or that rents are not extortionately high in Memphis; nor can shift the responsibility for the disorders of the State and the discouragement of the people, and want of confidence and general gloom and apprehension, from the shoulders of those who misgovern the country, to those of the press that exposes the enormous outrages and villanies of their misgovernment.

NEW DISCOVERIES.

General M. JEFF. THOMPSON has recently written an encyclical letter from Boston, to the officers and men of his command, vindicatory of his course on reconstruction, in which he announces these extraordinary propositions:

> Tell them to remember that political theories, like sectarian (religious) theories are principles ONLY in the minds of the bigoted and foolish, and demagogues are only too apt to misapply these terms to mislead them. Constitutions and laws are subject to changes by legal means and by revolutions, and when changed are to be obeyed; and if the lessons sad experience teach are not heeded, then are people unfit for self-government, and the sad fate of republican Mexico will be our lot. The extent of the limits to state rights as argued by Thomas Jefferson and Alexander Hamilton, and the right to own slaves, were submitted to the arbitrament of the sword, and in my opinion they were decided both against us, and neither our honor nor our interests require a further contest for them.

Political theories, when they claim to embody constitutional doctrines, are never abstract. They are always realized in facts and legislation, and their fruits are national prosperity or calamity. WEBSTER taught one political theory, and CALHOUN, and MACON and MADISON another. Were not the theories of these men principles; or were they of the bigoted and foolish of whom General THOMPSON speaks? Your soldier, who is fighting and blindly obeys the men of intellect who have expounded the theory for which he fights, is always apt to despise theorists and account them dreamers; while it is always the men of intellect whose blind instrument the soldier always is.

The theory of the Southern leaders was that the Union was a union of the States, the conditions and terms of which union were evidenced by the constitution; that this Constitution was but a written instrument evidencing the compact between these States, and of which the States were the authors, and to which they alone were parties. From this theory it resulted that if part of the States violated the compact in any essential particular, the others had a right to dissolve it, as they had if it had become onerous, and its operation unequal and oppressive. Secession was but the assertion of this theory, and of the principle of the sovereignty of the States.

The theory of the North was that the Constitution was not a compact between the States, but a Supreme law, imposed on the States and on the people of each, by the one people of all the States; that it created a government proper, over people and States; and that by it the States promised nothing and engaged themselves to nothing. From this theory it resulted that no State had a right to withdraw from the Union, because it was not a Union of States, created by a compact between them. Neither of these was a theory like the Plutonic or Neptunian theories of the Geologists, invented to account for the changes that have occurred to our globe during the different geological periods; or like NEWTON's theory of attraction and gravitation. On the contrary, each was a compound proposition, which its advocates claimed to be supported by history, and by the language of the Constitution itself.

From the former theory it resulted that it is the States which are represented in Congress; that it is the States which are 'in Congress assembled;' and that the United States was a corporation or body politic, created by the States, and of which they are the sole corporators. It also followed that the popular majority had no right to govern, but only the voices of the majority of both people and States, constitutionally expressed. And also that the States sit in the Supreme Court by their Judges, and judicially decide upon the validity and constitutionality of laws enacted by Congress and the Legislatures of the States.

These theories embody certain principles of National Government, which the bigoted and foolish do not comprehend; and they are fruitful of practical results, which involve the fate of the Nation and that of individuals. If the Southern theory is not true, General THOMPSON was a traitor, and as such dishonored; for he fought against the right, and if he had ever sworn to support the Constitution of the United States, he violated that oath. If he did not fight for a theory and a principle, he has little reason to be proud of the cause for which he fought. The Supreme Court of the United States has decided, without a dissenting voice, that so far as the dominion of the United States extends, Congress governs by virtue of and under the Constitution alone, even over a country acquired by conquest; and that it has and can have no powers at all, outside of the Constitution. Is this theory of the united and delegated powers of Congress not the embodiment and expression of a principle? If it is true, Congress can establish no military despotisms; and the present Military Governments are absolutely null and void.

The letter of General THOMPSON is in many respects remarkable. In much of it we fail to discern any meaning; and where there is a meaning, there is error. Laws, he says, "are subject to changes by legal means and by revolutions." Undoubtedly; but neither revolution nor conquest changes a Constitution, if the conqueror or revolutionist leaves it unaltered, and swears the conquered to obey it. He may abolish it, and enact a new one, or leave the country with none; but he cannot interpret it.

How we are to avoid "the sad fate of republican Mexico" by submitting to Force as interpreter, admitting that it has decided that the Union is not a Union of the States, nor the Constitution a compact between the States, and obsequiously kneeling that the conqueror may set his foot not only on our bodies, but on our souls, consciences and opinions, we do not see.

General THOMPSON holds that "the extent of the limits of State rights" was submitted to the arbitrament of the sword, decided against us, and settled; and "neither our honour nor our interests require a further contest for them." It is true that the Right was the Weaker, and was overcome. It has not, by being conquered, ceased to be the right. Reason, we have said before this, is always occupied in reversing the judgments of force. Truth, crushed to earth, will struggle to rise again; and our honour and our interests both require, it seems to us, with great deference to General THOMPSON, that we should never cease to struggle for our rights. Does he advise Irishmen to submit, and make no further effort for Irish independence? Does he think that Hungary ought not to have struggled? Does he think that Poland's successive struggles were wrong and unwise, and demanded neither by her interests nor honour?

We are not inclined to admit the competency of Gen. THOMPSON to decide on the value of theories and Constitutional principles. His views in respect to them are evidently crude and undigested. NAPOLEON, we think, preceded him in expressing a contempt for theorists; but NAPOLEON dreaded them, because republican theories were hostile to his autocracy.

Demagogues, Gen. THOMPSON says, are only too apt to misapply the terms, theories and principles, to mislead the people. We venture to guess that these are the terms he means. No man was less a demagogue than JOHN C. CALHOUN, the most consistent theorist of all our statesmen. To impute demagoguism to the men in the South who oppose an unconditional surrender of opinions and political faith and Constitutional principles, is too preposterous to excite even a momentary anger. It is easy to call names, and answer an argument by an epithet. The Demagogue is quite as likely to prefer the other side and to desire election to office by negro votes.

General THOMPSON, to shew his contempt for political theories, compares them to Sectarian (religious) theories. One could sneer, if he saw fit, at the Christian captive of the Algerine rover, who preferred death to apostacy. It is sheer nonsense to say that theories, political or religious, are principles to the bigotted and foolish only. The very fundamental principles of republican government were involved in the theories that met face to face in 1861, and the perpetuity of free government was at stake. It cannot continue if the Sovereignty of the States is destroyed; for that is the only barrier against the unlicensed despotism of the majority. The sword of the Soldier, were he even a MURAT, is of very little worth, and works very insignificant results, compared to the intellect of a theorist like CALHOUN or WEBSTER, expounding the great principles of Constitutional law, which depend for their soundness upon the correctness of his theory of the Government.

THEY WAVER.

A careful scrutiny of the Radical newspapers of the North will satisfy the calm and reflecting mind that Radicalism begins to waver, and that its courage is "oozing out" gradually, as the records of popular revolutions strike its rotten hulk, like the storm-wave in the frenzied ocean. In the crisis of its fate the fiends, evoked by its blood-guiltiness, pass before its excited vision like the procession of victims that haunted the imagination of the bloody MACBETH in the midst of his revels. Air-drawn daggers and blood-spots that "will not out," at their bidding, dance before the guilty consciences of the Radical chiefs and drive some of them to desperation—while others of them, impelled by fear of the impending doom, seek safety in a cowardly denial of the dogmas which have precipitated the country to the very brink of anarchy, dissolution and ruin.

Thus the New York Tribune loudly and lustily cries out for an "advance along the whole line," and illustrates its meaning by relating how SHERIDAN, when his forces fell back before the impetuous charge of EARLY's men to Winchester, and when his timid counsellors advised retreat, ordered "an advance along the whole line," and snatched victory from the jaws of defeat.

This is a clear confession that Radicalism has suffered serious detriment in its recent encounters with the Conservatives in Connecticut, California, Montana and Maine, and that nothing but pluck and bold and daring counsels can save it from utter rout. The fight must be made hot and desperate, "the timid sent to the rear" and all the appliances of a bloody and remorseless policy turned loose upon the land, to secure the triumph of despots and brigands who fight under the sacred name of Liberty, and profane Law, by invoking its protection.

On the contrary, we find that in Pennsylvania, where an important election for Supreme Judge is at hand, the Radicals are stoutly denying that any such issue is involved as negro suffrage or negro supremacy, and that, what they are pleased to call "the President's usurpations," are the issues involved in the contest. Radicals in other quarters are endeavoring to ease down the rugged and barbarous issues they have tendered to the American people. The revolting picture of negro Supremacy and an Ebony Empire are beginning to produce results in the Northern mind which they are compelled to answer for. Mongrelism, with all its horrid and disgusting features, is being sifted, scrutinized and protested against by the white men of the North who have not lost their pride of race and individual self-respect. Hence that most degraded organ of Radicalism, the New York Times, under pretense of offering advice to the freedmen of the South, essays to relieve the fears of the white men of the North, by the following suggestions:

> But the apprehension of colored supremacy has entered into the popular mind here as well as at the south, and as it will impede emigration to the south, it is as well to disabuse the public mind of the error. The gross number of white males in the southern states is 2,138,369; that of the freedmen is 1,299,941. It will be seen, therefore, that the white race is in excess of the colored in the southern states more than a quarter of a million of men. The local distribution of these numbers shows that there is a majority of 2370 freedmen in Mississippi, and of 6439 in South Carolina. As the advocate of harmony between the races on the basis of equal legal rights, we desire the freedmen to remember that the limitation of the franchise does not affect the comparative numerical ability of the two races; but that this majority of a quarter of a million of whites remains to work—that nature will emancipate them in a few years. That while there can be no more black immigration into the south, there will be a large white immigration, with a relatively large white increase. The supremacy of the colored race will be but temporary and local. They should therefore take their rights and be satisfied. They should not lay the foundation of any discontent which may be revenged by retaliation at a future period. Such is our advice. The white race are in little danger of losing any right which they are not willing to concede. The colored race should observe moderation at the present to prevent retaliation in the future.

The Times studiously overlooked the fact that even a temporary Negro supremacy would so demoralize the country and brutalize society as to drive white citizens into exile and corrupt the laws, so that a Herculean struggle would be necessary to restore the country to its pristine tone. It may rest assurred that the negro, when clothed with power, intends to use it for the oppression of the white race, and that years of toil, struggle and bitter strife will be necessary to bring us back to the status of civilization we have heretofore enjoyed. A party that would thus hazard the peace and civilization of a people, born to freedom, to secure its own ascendency, deserves to be sunk so low that resurrection will never reach it; and this just doom, we earnestly trust and believe, it is about to receive.

FINANCIAL FUTURE OF THE COUNTRY.

Very evidently, in the past few days, there has been a share of relief given the money market not only by the result of recent Northern elections, but because dangers, incident to the perfection of the cotton crop, are no longer feared. Ravages of the boll worm have been confined to narrow districts, and such is the abundance of grain in the South that corn is selling at twenty-five cents in Northern Alabama, and at forty cents in Mississippi. We are told that enough corn will be produced in the valley of the Arkansas to supply ten such States. The corn crop has failed in wide districts of Missouri and the Northwest. As a consequence of these facts, food being cheaper here than elsewhere, not only will the South sell both corn and cotton, and thus have an abundance of money, but immigration will be attracted. Europeans ordinarily bring with them money enough to support themselves for one year. Hence we must sell lands, in small tracts, on long time, requiring interest instead of cash. Now that food and land are cheaper here than elsewhere, immigrants will soon be advised of these two facts which control their movements. Superadd to these, the attractions presented by climatic laws, and then we have cheap lands, abundant food, nine months of each year in which agricultural pursuits may be prosecuted, and a reproduction of political quietude to result from the emergence of true conservatism from the chaos of partizanship.

A brighter day dawns upon us, and a resumption of business, confidence and activity must speedily occur.

CONGRESSIONAL GOVERNMENT.

But few or no more troops can be spared for operations against the Indians, for the reason that a large military force must be maintained at the South. As the National Intelligencer points out, though the army is large enough to be considered in ordinary times on a war footing, it is plain that, while the country is kept in its present unsettled condition, not a soldier can be spared from the South. It is understood that even now, in many localities there, the men have to perform double duty. The State governments over a third of the country have been prostrated; and the mixed population of ten millions which inhabit them cannot be ruled by a mere handful of soldiers. It is not improbable that to keep the lawless blacks from abusing such power as may be committed to them, will make a demand upon the entire military force of the country. To provide against these contingencies, and to defend every other portion of the country will require a large increase of the army. The government which Congress has established in this country will demand for its execution a much larger standing army than we now have.

[WESTERN ASSOCIATED PRESS REPORTS.]

WASHINGTON, September 17.—The revised regulations of alterations of the allowance to draw back on internal revenue taxes on exported merchandise has been issued by the secretary of the treasury, to take effect on the 1st of October.

The returns to the attorney general's office show that a large number of the southern people are taking the oath under the recent proclamation.

In anticipation of the yellow fever reaching Mobile, and the place being abandoned by the government officials, Gen. Spinner, United States treasurer, has, from prudential motives, thought proper to withdraw all the government funds deposited there, and place them in some city further north.

NEW ORLEANS, September 17.—Gen. Mower in his order assuming command, continues in force the existing orders of his predecessors, and assigns Brevet Maj.-Gen. Reynolds to the command of the district of Texas; Brevet Maj.-Gen. Mackenzie to the command of the district of the Rio Grande. Gen. Reynolds is to establish his headquarters at San Antonio or Austin until the fever shall have abated sufficiently at Galveston to render it safe to remove them there.

There were sixty-eight deaths from fever for the twenty-four hours ending at six o'clock this morning. Among them was E. W. Sherbourne, special agent of the treasury department.

NEW YORK, September 17.—Gillett & Noyes, in the tea trade, have failed. Their liabilities are about half a million. Their obligations are chiefly in the hands of the banks and private capitalists who bought them.

The splendid new frigate Wampanoag went into commission to-day, to cruise for a few months.

Reports are current to-day of other cotton failures in Liverpool, though the names are not given.

MEEDSVILLE, MD., September 17.—The dedication of Antietam National cemetery took place to-day. The following programme was carried out: The military and Masonic bodies escorted the president and party to the cemetery, where, in the presence of an immense throng, the exercises were opened by prayer. Gov. Swan, on assuming the presidential chair, tendered a welcome to President Johnson and the governors of other states who came to participate in the ceremonies. After alluding to the part taken by Maryland in establishing the cemetery he said, "we are here in the calm sunshine to mingle tears of sorrow with those who sacrificed their lives for their country upon this field," and invoked the Almighty to give speedy harmony to the whole country. A hymn was then sung by the assemblage, and the corner-stone was then laid by the grand master of Maryland. The oration was then delivered by the ex-governor, who, after referring to the distinguished persons present, stated that in response to a note of thanks from Maryland to the army for protecting the state from the rebels, the commander of this army had committed the remains of those who fell to the care of the state, and the details of the action taken by the state in the matter, were given. The numbers engaged on the field of Antietam, on the union side, was 87,164, while the rebel force was estimated at 79,000. The previous campaigns of the enemy were then referred to, and the anxiety of mind depicted on every face, the disasters of the army under Pope, its shattered condition, its reorganization by McClelland, and the victory won over the Confederate hosts of the rebellion by that reorganized army, were dwelt on at great length, with many reference to facts and circumstances. He concluded by urging adherence to the constitution, and said, "come the peril to it, from whence it may, from state rights or consolidation, let me here on the anniversary of its adoption in the name of the men who made it, and in the name of those who died for it, here on this field, in its behalf, appeal to you to preserve, protect and defend it." The poem was then read, and some remarks followed from the president and others, and the ceremonies closed with a benediction. Salutes were fired during the procession and at the close. Everything passed off quietly.

AUCTION.

PUBLIC SALE
Of Three Hundred Acres Suburban Land on Ten Years' Credit.
I PROPOSE to sell at Public Sale, to the Highest bidder,
On Thursday, 14th November, 1867,
About 300 acres Field and Forrest Land, on my Homestead Tract, situated three miles east of Memphis, at the head of Union avenue, and lying between Central avenue and the Old State Line road. The most popular street pavements being now in process of construction in Memphis, good turnpikes or street railways on the roads leading from the city directly through this property, must soon follow; thereby affording the most reasonable probability of its great and rapid enhancement of value.
In stating the advantages of this property I would specially refer to the HEALTH of the locality as having been always considered equal if not superior to that of any portion of the city environs; while the high character of the neighborhood, and the provision made for Church and School Privileges combine to render it one of the most desirable points for a suburban residence which the vicinity of Memphis affords.
The TITLE to this property has been vested in my father and myself for thirty years without interruption, and is free from any incumbrance.
The Subdivision of the Grounds will be in lots of about Five Acres, according to plans to be seen at the office of the Auctioneers. The avenues will be opened, and the lots numbered so as to be readily examined before the day of sale.
Being Determined to Sell I shall offer the following liberal
TERMS: One-tenth Cash, the balance in Ten Annual Instalments, with interest from date. Warranty Deeds given, and Trust Deeds taken, waiving redemption. These terms will make it very easy for any one to secure a pleasant Home, which must constantly increase in value and comfort, as the growth of Memphis continues.

WANTED—THE PATENT
AURORA OIL.

We want men everywhere to study their own interest. The right to manufacture and sell the Patent Aurora Oil in a single county will make more money to the purchaser in three months than the largest farm in your State will make in a whole year. The Aurora Oil actually costs less than one-half the price of Coal Oil, and the illuminating power of the Aurora Oil is as much superior to the Coal Oil as the Coal Oil is to a tallow candle, and is no more explosive than a tallow candle. Any Lamp that will burn Coal Oil will burn the Aurora Oil. It does not smoke the chimney—it does not smell—it will not grease or stain the finest linen—not even white cloth. The material for its manufacture is inexhaustible. One man can make seventy-five barrels per day. No machinery required. We will pay your fare to and from the city of Memphis and bills while here, if we cannot prove all, and even more, than we have stated. A single county is a small fortune to the man of enterprise, and the right to a State is untold worth.

DRUG STORE ROBBED.—The drug store of H. G. Page, on the corner of Third and Poplar streets, was entered by some burglars at an early hour yesterday morning, when a lot of clothing, together with a quantity of soap, brushes and fancy articles as well as a small amount in currency and specie, was carried off. The thieves made good their escape.

RECEIPTS PER MEMPHIS & LOUISVILLE FAST FREIGHT LINE—September 16, 1867. Sherman, Taylor & Co 4 sks potatoes, Clark & Smith 5 coops chickens, Memphis city railroad company 1 car of lumber, Partee & Harbert 4 bales cotton, Col. Porter 1 carry-log, Cunningham, Wicks & Malone 1 bale new cotton, Simpson, Hadden & Co 80 bbls flour and 5 cks bacon.

HARD TIMES AND GOOD FORTUNE.—The winner of the lot on the corner of Third and Court streets, will be the wonder of the hour after the next drawing of the Southern Asylum. This single prize may be so used that it will give the owner an annual rental of $8000 or $10,000. A railway farm, for one dollar, will make a poor man comfortable, or give the rich a country home.

DISAPPEARED.—Information was given to the police yesterday, that Mr. John Hogan had suddenly disappeared from his quarters, No. 57 Front street, on the night of the fifteenth, and has not since been heard from. Mr. Hogan is about twenty-six years of age, stands about five feet nine inches high, and is dark complexioned. Any information of his whereabouts, sent to 57 Front street, will receive prompt attention.

FIRST FROM SHELBY.—A bale of cotton, claimed to be the first received in Memphis from Shelby county, arrived yesterday, consigned to S. M. Webb & Co., Lee Block. It will class good middling, and came from the plantation of Mr. W. P. McCullum, three miles north of the city, on the Raleigh road, an enterprising young planter, who expects to send in about one hundred and twenty-five bales this fall. The usual demijohn was forwarded.

INQUEST.—Mr. Coronor Cotton was called upon yesterday to hold an inquest on the body of a woman named Julia Farrell, who died very suddenly in a portion of the town between Poplar and Exchange streets, known as "Happy Hollow." From the evidence adduced the jury rendered a verdict that the deceased came to her death from fits brought on by an indulgence in spirituous liquors. Fortunately she left no children.

PERSONAL.—The veteran ticket agent of the New Orleans, Jackson and Great Northern railroad, Henry Florence, is in town looking after the interests of his line. Mr. Florence is putting up at the Overton. Joe. H. Smith, one of the most popular conductors of the same road, passed through the city yesterday on a trip north. Ed. A Garland, editor of the Water Valley Courier, made a flying trip through our city yesterday, and on the way collected a few cards. J. A. Signiago, of the Grenada Sentinel, also cheered us with his presence. May he and his lively paper flourish always.

THE STAPLE.—We have a word of advice to give to the growers of our great staple. It is very important in these troublous times that our farmers should consign cotton to houses of well known standing and respectability. While we have many of this class in our midst, and not desiring to detract from the merit of the worthy, we feel warranted in saying that W. L. Stewart, No. 2 Bank alley, stands in the foremost rank of the veteran cotton merchants of Memphis. An experience in the business of over fifteen years gives him advantages only to be gained by study. He always sells to the best advantage, and looks sharply to the interests of his patrons.

MEMPHIS AND CHARLESTON RAILROAD COMPANY.—At a meeting of the board of directors of the Memphis and Charleston railroad company, held at their office in Memphis, on Monday, the 16th instant, the following officers were elected for the ensuing year: Sam. Tate, president; W. J. Ross, general superintendent; M B. Prichard, chief engineer; C. B. Wallace, assistant superintendent western division; Charles S. Williams, assistant superintendent eastern division; Geo. Robertson, secretary and treasurer western division; Sam. R. Cruse, secretary and treasurer eastern division; A. A. Barnes, general ticket agent; Thos. B. Dunn, general freight agent.

TERPSICHORE.—By reference to our advertising columns this morning it will be seen that Mr. H. C. Lippard will open his dancing school on the 28th. Mr. Lippard is a clever, genial gentleman, well known in the south as standing in the foremost rank of his profession. For four years previous to the war he taught this elegant accomplishment in many of our academies, and, as an evidence that his services were fully appreciated, we may state that he has been re-engaged by several of them for the winter, including the St. Agnes, La Salette, St. Mary's and others. The time, place and terms of his public classes may be learned from his card.

TOOF, PHILLIPS & CO.—We desire to call the especial attention of our friends to the card of Messrs. Toof, Phillips & Co., cotton factors, grocers and commission merchants, No. 286 Front street, who have on hand one of the largest and best selected stocks of groceries and plantation supplies to be found in this market. The cotton brokerage business is under the exclusive control of Chas. J. Phillips, who devotes his whole attention to that branch, and none know how to manage it better than he. Maj. Busby, who has hosts of friends in Arkansas, is also connected with the house; while our old-time friend Jno. Toof is always on hand to serve his friends. The house, though young compared with others, is reliable in every particular.

GOOD STOCK.—The fast approaching of the completion of the Nicolson pavement on our principal streets, induces many of our "fair women and brave men" to indulge in the luxury of a fashionable turn-out. At no place in the city can the necessary rig be better obtained than at the stables of Messrs. Dismukes & Kellogg, No. 61 Monroe street. Their horses are kind and fast, while their buggies ride as easy as easy can be. In a visit to their stables yesterday, we saw among other things about seventy-five of the finest mules in the country, and on inquiry learned that they were brought here by Maj. Evans, of Bourbon county, Kentucky, for sale. Let those who desire the long-eared tribe, call there.

Certificates from Physicians and other citizens, well known in the community, can be produced in numbers to convince all doubters of the great value of the Texas Tonic Syrup as a curative for Chills and Fever. This preparation of our Sunny South is composed entirely of plants, chiefly growing by the margin of Texan streams, and is prepared solely by Mansfield & Higbee, Memphis, Tenn. It is far superior to the imported nostrums that have been scattered in our midst, and combines within itself every quality to adapt it for family use. It has been thoroughly tried and ever been known to cure the most inveterate case of Fever and Ague.

MAYOR AND ALDERMEN.

THE SEMI-MONTHLY MEETING YESTERDAY.

Important Message from the Mayor in Reference to the Gas Companies, and Other Matters.

Alderman Lynn, of the Fourth Ward, Resigns, and Mr. Hill Refuses to Accept the Seat Vacated by Ex-Alderman Bolling, Etc.

The semi-monthly meeting of the board of mayor and aldermen, was held at their chambers in the Exchange building, yesterday, when the following proceedings were had:

Alderman Passmore called the board to order, and moved that Alderman Shaw take the chair.

Present: Hon. W. O. Lofland, mayor; Aldermen Powers, Glancy, Cochran, Amis, O'Donnell, Holst, Lemon, Smith, Ruffin, Passmore.

The minutes of the previous meeting were read, and ordered to stand as recorded.

The following message was read, from the mayor:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, MEMPHIS, Sept. 17, 1867.

To the Honorable Board of Aldermen:

I regret that I cannot sanction your recent action ordering an election by which the people may determine whether the municipal government shall take one hundred thousand dollars of the stock of the Gayoso gas company.

Popular prejudices are surely arrayed against the company, which now wields a most profitable monopoly.

Assuming that the people will endorse your action, it becomes us to enquire whether such a result will promote the public good.

The main object of this is the relief of the people from the tender mercies of the monopoly of the Memphis gas company. The end proposed is eminently desirable, whether we may accomplish the task surely and safely by this proposed subscription, is an inquiry which demands careful consideration.

It was supposed when this proposition was first presented for your adoption, that a large amount had already been subscribed and paid by individuals to the stock of the new company.

Subscriptions have been liberally made, but not a dollar has been paid by the subscribers. The whole cost of labor and material has fallen on a single individual.

The city's subscription when made, must be paid. Would it not be proper to delay action until advised that our fellow shareholders will pay as liberally as they subscribe. From one hundred thousand dollars of the city bonds, not more than sixty thousand dollars in money will be realized. The whole cost of the gas works will not be less than $260,000 to $300,000. The president of the company may exhaust his own resources, together with the amount furnished by the city, and the monopolists from whose clutches you seek to escape, will then have a firmer hold upon the public and private coffers than ever before. The proposed subscription is not large enough to insure the completion of the task undertaken. In fact, in the present financial condition of the city and its citizens, failure would be inevitable.

Suppose the subscription made, and that each individual stockholder paid the sum annexed to his name, the company would then have a cash capital of two hundred and sixty thousand or two hundred and eighty thousand dollars, ($280,000.) One hundred thousand would be owned by the city and the balance by individuals. We are told that the Memphis gas company is very rich; that the stockholders are worthy citizens of this city and of Ohio. The company has a large surplus capital. Its policy would be to reduce the price of gas to a minimum, and render the stock of the new company profitless and valueless; its next step would involve the purchase of a majority of the stock in the new company. What guarantee has the city that individual shareholders in the new company will not sell for a good price to the old company? Within twelve or eighteen months the present monopoly would monopolize the power and the profits of both organizations, and the city's stock would be subjected to the tender mercies of those against whom the city waged war. I am sure no individual alderman would place himself in an attitude so unfortunate, or subject his private fortune to such danger. Whatever may be your final action, I hope that such a policy may be adopted by which those patent palpable dangers may be obviated.

If it becomes us in the present condition of our finances and in view of immense expenditures now hourly incurred, to issue bonds for the purpose proposed, let us, by all means, hold a major part of all the stock in this "Gayoso gas company."

If individuals control the new company, we may expect the interest of individuals to shape the policy and prices for the new as well as old company. If the new company prove profitless, individual shareholders will sell their stock for the highest possible price, and the old company is chiefly interested in controlling this stock. The old company will give more for the stock, and soon own more than the city. The purpose of the proposed subscription must, therefore, be defeated.

It is useless for the city to own any, unless it own a majority of the shares, otherwise we could not control the price of gas for our constituents, and in spite of our opposition the new organization might speedily lapse into the hands or habits of the old.

These propositions are too plain for denial, and it is quite apparent why stockholders in the new company would not have your honorable body control a larger interest than one hundred thousand dollars.

If the city government become supreme in the gas company the price of gas will be reduced to absolute cost. At once individual stockholders would object to such a policy; yet such must be the purpose contemplated by those who ask us to share the burdens of this praiseworthy enterprise.

Ten thousand dollars, the amount already subscribed to the new company by the city, is quite enough for the city to hazard in a scheme of this character. If we take a larger amount of stock let us hold enough to be masters of the situation.

The charter of this new gas company has not been presented to the people nor to the board of aldermen. Of its provisions, powers conferred and limitations we are not advised; of its condition as to liabilities and assets, we have no information; of the liabilities, assets and solvency of shareholders, we know nothing.

We may act, and the people vote, but should not until all these incidents of the company are thoroughly investigated.

In disposing of the city's credit we are not required to bestow more care and prudence than in the management of our own private fortunes, and our obligations will not suffer the exercise of less. Let us then have the information necessary to enable the board of aldermen, as well as the people, to form an intelligent judgment as to the merits of the charter and the condition of the company before they are required to act.

I am aware that popular prejudice sustains and approves the course of your honorable body. Just as the Memphis gas company is odious, whether rightfully or wrongfully, to that extent you are hurried to a point whence it may be as difficult as desirable to retrace your steps.

No single object of the people is secured by the subscription of one hundred thousand dollars. This sum is too much to hazard. If the charter and the condition of the company is found, on investigation, to be satisfactory, I would suggest a subscription to the new company of two hundred and fifty thousand dollars, or a sufficient amount to insure the completion of the works, and the absolute control of the company by the city.

Believing that permanent and certain relief from present evils cannot be secured by the proposed appropriation of the city's credit, I make the suggestion above, which if carried out by your honorable body shall receive my cordial approval. But I am compelled to return the ordinance discussed without my approval.

Before closing this message, I will direct your attention to the arrangement made with the banks in regard to our treasury warrants. The banks hold balances against us, growing out of the agreement made with them. It is desirable that these accounts should be closed, and the warrants taken up and cancelled. I would suggest that the finance committee be directed to make this settlement.

In view of the depreciation of our scrip, it is absolutely necessary that some decided effort should be made to retrench the public expenditures. The streets and alleys are now in good condition.

The contractors will so far complete the paving of the principal streets before the bad weather sets in, that we may have no fears of seeing our streets in such condition as in the past. As the means of very materially reducing our daily expenses, I will, unless you order otherwise, direct the street commissioner to discharge his entire force of men and carts, and keep employed on streets and alleys for sanitary purposes only the chaingang and the carts belonging to the city.

To pay the forty-five or fifty men employed, in city scrip at par, would reduce their wages to fifty or fifty-three cents, which is unjust and oppressive to them; to pay them according to the rule adopted by your honorable body, and make the scrip equivalent to cash, amounts to about four dollars per day to the hand, which is wrong and oppressive to the tax-payers. Much more might be done by the street commissioner to advantage, to fair prices for labor, but we cannot get an equivalent in work for four dollars per day to the hand; hence my proposition to discharge the entire force until such time as our credit and means will enable us to receive something like an equivalent in return for the wages we pay out.

As the street commissioner will have charge of the chain-gang and carts, to look after the sanitary condition of the city, I would advise that the eight men recently put under the direction of the sanitary department be also relieved.

It is time that assessors for the forty-first corporate year should be appointed. Nominations for assessors will be submitted for consideration as soon as you fix the amount of pay for each.

Your attention is invited to the resolution passed some time since requiring the census to be taken. If desirable, appointments may be made for that purpose. Respectfully,
W. O. LOFLAND, Mayor.

Alderman Passmore, from the committee on accounts, presented a report, which was adopted.

Alderman Cochran, chairman of the landing committee, reported adversely on the petition of M. Faro, to establish a bake shop and provision house on the wharfboat.

Alderman Glancy opposed the adoption of the report. The report, however, was adopted.

By the same: A report in reference to the protection of the landing between Fort Harris and the foot of Market street, and that the unpaved portion of the landing between Court and Monroe streets be paved with stone or boulder pavement at once, and that the work be done under the direction of the city engineer by the lowest bidder.

A motion to adopt the report was lost by a vote of 6 to 5.

Alderman Amis moved that the report be again referred to the landing committee, which was passed by a vote of 7 to 3.

Alderman Smith, from the fire committee, reported favorably on the petition of M. H. Reilly, asking the privilege of erecting a frame house on the corner of Second and Auction streets. Report adopted.

Alderman Amis, chairman of the committee of improvements, reported favorably on the ordinance establishing the grades on Beal and other streets. The report was adopted.

A communication was read from Napoleon Hill, Esq., declining the position tendered to him as Alderman of the Fourth ward.

Also another, from Henry J. Lynn, tendering his resignation, which was accepted.

Alderman Passmore moved that an election be held at once to fill the vacancies.

Alderman Wickersham moved an amendment to postpone further action till the next meeting. The amendment was carried.

Alderman Amis suggested that the matter of the mayor's message in reference to the taking of stock in the Gayoso gas company be referred to a special committee of three. Motion lost.

Alderman Ruffin submitted an ordinance in accordance with the suggestions of the mayor's message, ordering an election to be held within the time prescribed by law, to test the sense of the people as to the propriety of taking $250,000 stock in the Gayoso gas company. Passed a first reading.

Alderman Wickersham moved that the ordinance be referred to a special committee of three to report thereon at the next meeting of the board. The chair appointed Aldermen Wickersham, Amis and O'Donnell as such committee.

On motion of Alderman Passmore that part of the mayor's message relating to a settlement with the banks was referred to the finance committee. Other portions of the message was referred to the proper committees.

Alderman Wickersham presented a petition from W. C. Thompson, representing that he had always kept a well regulated place of amusement, and furnished the people of Memphis with legitimate amusement at a pecuniary loss. He asked that his tax be remitted. Tabled.

Alderman Smith offered a resolution compelling the property holders to lay down a plank sidewalk from Col. Fowler's place to Brinkley avenue. Adopted.

By the same: An ordinance authorizing the appointment of a gas inspector and defining his duties.

The chair decided the ordinance out of order, when Alderman Smith withdrew the same.

By the same: That the sum of seventy-five cents per diem, instead of fifty cents, be allowed to the members of the chain gang. Passed a final reading and referred.

By the same: An ordinance to abolish the city pound, and declare the office of city pound-keeper abolished. Passed a first reading. On motion of Alderman Lemon, the matter was referred to a select committee of three, to report on.

Alderman Amis moved that the mayor be instructed to settle with Mr. Stewart, the contractor, for fencing and improving the City park according to the terms of the contract. Adopted.

Alderman Wickersham offered an ordinance providing that the tax on theaters be one hundred dollars per annum, payable in advance. He urged the passage of the ordinance in a lengthy speech.

Alderman Passmore opposed the passage of the ordinance, believing it to be unjust. He thought the theaters should pay what the law ordered. He moved to lay the ordinance on the table. Lost. On motion the ordinance was passed on its first reading, and referred to a committee of three, and Aldermen Passmore, Holt and Powers were appointed such committee.

Alderman Cochran moved that all contracts be paid for in scrip, at par. Referred to the finance committee.

After the transaction of some minor business the board adjourned.

SHELBY COUNTY CIRCUIT COURT. Judge Reeves took up the trial docket on yesterday, and commenced calling up the cases regularly for trial. The case of Smith & Lane vs Brinkley was concluded, the jury finding a verdict for the plaintiff. The calling of the docket will be continued to-day. The judge's rule seems to be try, continue or dismiss. Attorneys will do well to watch their cases in this court, in order to avoid judgments by default.

UNITED STATES COURT.—The case of Pope, adm'r., vs. Fly, was disposed of on yesterday, the demurrer being overruled and judgment for defendant being entered. An interesting discussion sprang up in the case of Riddle, Coleman & Co. vs. Pillow, on the plea of the defendant. Questions of international law, belligerent rights, prizes, etc., were ably discussed by Messrs. Chalmers & Haines for the defendant, and by Col. McRae for the plaintiff. The case was continued over to this morning. The habeas corpus case of Milligin also comes up to-day for investigation.

LOOK TO IT.—It is with much pleasure we call the attention of our readers to the card of Messrs. Briggs & Norton, wholesale grocers and cotton factors, No. 308 Front row. They have on hand one of the largest and best selected stocks of groceries, liquors, etc., to be found in the city, and are selling goods at the lowest market prices. Their quotations are always correct, and customers may rest assured that what they recommend may always be relied on. They have recently opened up a trade with Northwestern Texas, which promises to be alike remunerative to them and profitable to Memphis. Their extensive connections with houses in Louisville, Cincinnati and New York, place them in a position to deal liberally with their customers. The members of the firm are personally known to us as upright business men, and we heartily endorse them in every particular.

No Substitutes.—When the ladies ask for the delicious Hesperian Balm for the complexion, it is useless to offer them lily white or toilet powders, or any other inferior substitutes. They always prefer the best toilet articles; "Hesperian Balm" they want, and Hesperian Balm they will have OR NONE.

The Great Southern Remedy.

DR. C. WILLIAMS'
Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry
—AND—
WOOD NAPTHA,
Recommended by distinguished members of the Medical Profession.

THIS Medicine will be found on a fair trial to be the most prompt and effectual remedy for all diseases of the CHEST and THROAT, the greatest care having been taken in its preparation, being compounded on the most scientific principles. In its composition is embraced a combination of the most valuable and effective Expectorants, Anodynes and Sedatives, which are known to possess the highest repute with all intelligent members of the Medical Profession.

Wood Naptha, as well as the Wild Cherry, enters largely into its composition, being the GREAT REMEDY so successfully used in Consumption by the celebrated Dr. Hastings, of London.

The following evidence is from the Rev. W. D. F. Sawrie, Presiding Elder of the Methodist Episcopal Church, for the District of North Alabama:

DR. CHARLES WILLIAMS—Dear Sir: I take pleasure in giving my testimony to the virtues of your excellent "Pulmonic Balsam of Wild Cherry." Having used several bottles in my family with decided advantage in every case, I can recommend it as the best and most pleasant medicine I have ever seen.

LIBERAL ADVANCES—Supplies at Wholesale Prices. Commission for selling Cotton, One Dollar per Bale.

To the Cotton Planters of West Tennessee, Alabama, Mississippi and Arkansas:

The undersigned respectfully tenders his services as agent for the sale of your cotton in this city, and for the purchase of your supplies. The unfortunate termination of the late war, which so materially affected the best interests of the South, has also had its effect upon the Commission Business of this city, as transacted between planter and merchant. You doubtless will remember with what pertinacity (previous to the war), amounting in some instances to annoyance, you were solicited for your business at the rate of fifty cents per bale commission, free of drayage, and stored for twelve months without charge. Then (as will be again) the producer was the ruling element, and high rents, rich landlords and merchants were the result of planters' patronage. No people or occupation have been more seriously prostrated than planters and planting, and none so much deserve to be fostered and aided in their unfortunate changed condition. How that aid so much needed has been meted out you I opine too well know. Onerous government taxes in general, and a special tax upon your leading production, Cotton, large profits you have had to pay upon supplies furnished, commissions on sales ranging from $3 50 to $5 per bale, monthly storage at exorbitant prices and other expenses, as per reference to your account sales, as a sum total will leave you but little if anything upon which to rebuild your shattered fortunes, or to compete with the new order of affairs—free labor. When I withdrew from the Cotton and Commission Business in 1860, private reasons then led me to believe that I would never engage in it again. The solicitations of many friends that were former patron, and a desire to promote the interest of the planting community, so far as my feeble efforts can do so, and the apparent want of gratitude exhibited to a community that in times past so materially to the prosperity of Memphis and its mercantile community, has determined me again to offer my services in the capacity as stated. The reduced stocks of cotton in the United States and short supplies in the hands of New England manufacturers has caused some advance in prices from the late depression, hence early sales may be prudent and remunerative; such was the case the past two seasons, and many planters have had cause to regret the acting upon the too common practice of holding and drawing upon their cottons. I would advise no planter to send forward his cotton unless he wished it sold upon the first active market. It can be held at home much cheaper than in Memphis. My charges for selling cotton will be One Dollar per bale. Insurance effected in all cases if not instructed to the contrary. Shall buy your supplies from wholesale houses, giving you the benefit of same. In short, by strict attention to all the departments of our business, I hope to merit a large share of patronage.
Very respectfully,
se4 R. A. MOON.

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S
BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the
CAT-GUT CUSHION,
Manufactured by KAVANAGH & DECKER, and Patented Dec. 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 11.)
It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, as is abundantly proven by the great demand for it since its introduction. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others, is the tightened cord of cat-gut which overlies the face and edge of the rubber and running the full length of the Cushion, which prevents the ball from bedding into the rubber and jumping from the table. The addition of the cat-gut cord also adds much to the elasticity of the cushion.
The Cat-Gut Cushion has already been applied to over 1000 tables, which are in constant use. It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.
Kavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of its kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the lumber drying room the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.
Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.
Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.

THE DISCOVERY OF THE AGE.
NO material which has ever been discovered has effected greater benefits in the household economy than McGIMSEY'S MAGIC SOAP.
It is a labor saving invention, as well as an invaluable remedy in Scurvy, Scald Head, Eruptions of the Skin and Piles. Dandruff is removed from the head, the Teeth whitened and cleaned, Plate and Jewelry cleaned, Stains effectually removed from Carpets, Furniture, Clothes, Paint, Varnish or Marble, with the greatest facility and without injury to the material. It is a great saving of time and labor in washing clothes. It is the only known Soap which will wash Flannels with the ease of cotton or linen without fulling or shrinking. All these important objects can be effected without injury to the skin or the most delicate fabrics. It possesses no deleterious qualities whatever. The world is challenged to produce a soap which possesses so many valuable properties and which is so innocuous and safe. It is a home invention, and defies competition in any part of the world. It has become a necessity in Memphis, and its use is rapidly spreading throughout the South, and eventually will extend over the Yankee States, North and South America, Europe, Asia, Africa and Oceanica. Manufactured solely by C. P. McGimsey, Memphis, Tenn., and sold at the following places in the city at wholesale and retail: Page & Co's, Dean's, Tayler's Drug Store, Poplar street; King's, corner of Third and Adams; Oliver & Co.'s DeSoto Block, Madison street; will soon be found at any respectable family grocery or drug store. The proprietor is determined that its manufacture shall keep pace with the rapidly extending demand for its use. au16

Our Latest Improved

NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.

THESE Instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO-FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other First Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The lower register retaining its positiveness does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpracticed and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and Lyre Serpentine Base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep5 d&wly

SECOND DRAWING

—OF THE—

Southern Asylum

LAND COMPANY,

TO TAKE PLACE AT

HERNANDO, MISS.,

AUGUST, 1867.

THE First Drawing, which took place at Hernando, Miss., on the 15th inst., was attended with unusual success, when it is remembered that but a few weeks elapsed from the inception of the enterprise to that event. $17,000 worth of tickets having been sold, a like amount of property was drawn for, under the supervision of gentlemen selected by the ticket holders present. The utmost harmony and good feeling pervaded those present, and, as will be seen from the subjoined certificate of the Managers, the affair was conducted to a close in a most gratifying and satisfactory manner:

HERNANDO, MISS., June 15, 1867.

We hereby certify that the above report of the First Drawing of the Southern Asylum is correct, and that the proceedings were characterized by a spirit of fairness and justness unsurpassed by any Drawing of which we have any knowledge. The Managers of the Company placed the tickets and wheels under our sole management and control.

Signed: J. B. MORGAN, ROBERT TEMPLE, V. A. MERRIWETHER, W. W. CAMPTON, M. MAGEVENY, JOHN AINSLIE, Committee.

J. M. HALL, Clerk.

The Prizes drawn on this occasion numbered Forty-seven, and comprised lots in the vicinity of Memphis, Tenn., Corinth, Miss., and Hernando, Miss., deeds to which have been made to the lucky ticket-holders. For this, the Second Drawing, however, we are able to offer our patrons still more attractive inducements to interest themselves in our scheme. From a lengthy list of property, much of which has already been advertised to the public, we select the following:

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

LAMENT OF THE IRISH EMIGRANT.

BY LADY DUFFERIN.

[In view of the recent death of its author, a woman as lovely in nature as she was brilliant in mind, a melancholy interest attaches to this familiar poem, one of the simplest and most pathetic in our language.]

I'm sittin' on the stile, Mary,
Where we sat side by side,
On a bright May mornin' long ago,
When first you were my bride;
The corn was springing fresh and green,
And the lark sang loud and high—
And the red was on your lip, Mary,
And the love-light in your eye.

The place is little changed, Mary,
The day as bright as then;
The lark's loud song is in my ear,
And the corn is green again;
But I miss the soft clasp of your hand,
And your breath warm on my cheek,
And I still keep list'nin' for the words
You never more will speak.

'Tis but a step down yonder lane,
And the little church stands near,
The church where we were wed, Mary,
I see the spire from here.
But the grave-yard lies between, Mary,
And my step might break your rest—
For I've laid you, darling! down to sleep,
With your baby on your breast.

I'm very lonely now, Mary,
For the poor make no new friends,
But, Oh! they love the better still,
The few our Father sends!
And you were all I had, Mary,
My blessin' and my pride;
There's nothing left to care for now,
Since my poor Mary died.

Yours was the good, brave heart, Mary,
That still kept hoping on,
When the trust in God had left my soul,
And my arm's young strength was gone:
There was comfort ever on your lip,
And the kind look on your brow—
I bless you, Mary, for that same,
Though you cannot hear me now.

I thank you for the patient smile
When your heart was fit to break,
When the hunger pain was gnawin' there,
And you hid it for my sake!
I bless you for the pleasant word,
When your heart was sad and sore—
Oh! I'm thankful you are gone, Mary,
Where grief can't reach you more!

I'm biddin' you a long farewell;
My Mary—kind and true!
But I'll not forget you, darling!
In the land I'm goin' to;
They say there's bread and work for all,
And the sun shines always there—
But I'll not forget old Ireland,
Were it fifty times as fair!

And often in those grand old woods
I'll sit and shut my eyes,
And my heart will travel back again
To the place where Mary lies;
And I'll think I'll see the little stile,
Where we sat side by side,
And the springin' corn, and the bright May morn,
When first you were my bride.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, September 16, 1867.

The opposition in some political quarters to the amnesty proclamation of President Johnson had the effect of running gold up, doing the week until it reached 146 in New York. Another fruitful source of anxiety in the money market, says an exchange, is due to the apprehended financial difficulties growing out of a possible panic about the national banks. The failure of a few institutions here and there has revived the general impression of the instability of the system, and led to some fear that more trouble will be experienced from the same source. There is nothing in the difficulties thus far reported to warrant such a conclusion. In the case of the First National bank of Kingston, the trouble is less with the bank than with its president. If we are correctly informed, the greater part of the indebtedness unprovided for is personal and not official. The president, J. H. Hasbrouck, was in the habit of borrowing on his own personal responsibility United States bonds, and perhaps other securities to be negotiated and accounted for after his return to Kingston. It is said that large amounts, some two or three hundred thousand dollars in all, were taken by him from small capitalists living in or near to the place of his residence, upon deposit in his own name, for which the bank is not liable. The loss of the institution is thus narrowed down to a small figure, and it will continue in business with unshaken credit. There is nothing in all this to discredit national banks as such, and those writers who are seeking to foster a feeling of distrust against these institutions are sowing the seeds of a harvest which bring only evil to all concerned.

Money in this market is not plentiful, that is, except to a favored few it is equally as difficult to get a discount as ever, but there are some names whose endorsement is never slighted and in many instances are sought after. Deposits are better than during the past few months, and the commercial week has closed with a better feeling all round. Gold opened in New York to-day at 44½. It advanced to 44¾ by 11 o'clock, and continued steady at the latter figure until 1 p.m. The closing rate will be found in our news column. The offerings here were fair and the buying rate during the day was steady, 42½ to 43c. In a few instances 43¼ was paid for round lots.

Silver is very scarce. A few lots running from $10 to $100 are occasionally offered and taken at 32 to 33c.

Rates of exchange are uniform and steady, Eastern sight is sold at ¼ to ½ premium. The demand is not active.

City scrip grows in favor daily. The demand to-day was fair. Dealers buy at 50 to 52c, and are selling at 53 to 54c.

County warrants are dull and nominal. Dealers would sooner sell than buy. In fact few wish to hold more than they have on hand. The nominal buying rate is 67c. Selling at 70 to 72c.

There is some inquiry for police scrip, but little offered to dealers. Buying at 80c, selling at 82 to 85c.

The only transaction reported in securities was one lot of $10,000 compound interest notes of 1865, which were taken at $114.

Stocks and bonds are nominal as quoted below.

The crop prospects are not as flattering as they were a week ago. From all sections we learn of devastation by the army worm. The following letter from a well known gentleman gives a bad account of their ravages in North Mississippi and is but a counterpart of our advices from other sections of the cotton growing region:

DESOTO COUNTY, MISS., Sept. 14, 1867.

Editors Appeal:

Supposing every item which relates to the growing cotton crop may be of interest to your readers, I drop you a line to say that I have rarely seen a more discouraging prospect than is presented by that portion of our county lying south of Coldwater river—say half the county. (I have not been north of the river, nor have I heard from there in reference to the crops.) Owing to the cold, wet and unfavorable spring cotton was unusually backward in "getting off," as we farmers term it—and the stands were decidedly the worst I have ever known. When it took a start, however, it grew rapidly and soon attained a fine weed—encouraging the hope that with a very favorable fall and barring all calamities, a fair average crop might be made; but these calamities have come upon us thick and fast. In the first place we have had no rain since the 28th of July. In consequence of the drouth the rust had made its appearance, simultaneously all over the country, and have made a clean sweep of everything. The fields are literally stripped of every leaf, and all bolls less than half grown, and all farms and squares are entirely destroyed. If our fields had been visited by a killing frost ten days since the effect would not have been more damaging. Imagine the crop at least two weeks later than usual, and a killing frost to have visited it on the 10th of September, and you can form a fair estimate of the prospect through this section. A gentleman stopped with me last night, who is just completing a horseback tour through the counties of Yalobusha, Tallahatchie and Panola, and gave similar reports of the crop in those counties.

Considering the damage to the bottom lands in the spring from overflows, bad stands, worms, etc., and the devastation to the uplands, which is universal so far as my information extends, and if the present crop in Mississippi does not fall at least one-third behind that of last year, then I am a poor hand to guess—all speculations to the contrary notwithstanding. J.

There has been about a dozen bales of the new crop of cotton received, so far, in this market, but receipts will increase from this out, and by the first of October, we think, orders can be filled with new cotton. The market for the week has been dull and drooping, owing to unfavorable quotations from abroad. The exaggerated estimates of the coming crop has caused the decline in Europe; and, until those erroneous impressions which, we regret to say, are indulged in and circulated by many of our merchants are removed, the decline will continue. The receipts for the past week at this port were 488 bales; shipments 331 bales. This is a falling off from last week's receipts. The few sales during the week were made upon a basis of from 22 to 23c for middling, and closed at the inside quotations.

The general markets for the week have been steadily improving. Wheat continues to arrive from the interior, and finds ready sale at our quotations. Corn is dull but scarce with occasional receipts by wagon and rail from this and adjoining counties. Oats are firm. Meal is firm and in fair supply. Meats of all kinds are held at our quotations, but we could see an evident weakening in clear sides—not quotable—but still apparent. Bagging and rope is asked for, and some small lots of each, as well as ties, are nearing their destiny—the cotton bale. Prices are not uniform in either bagging or ties. Some India is held above the market, while some Kentucky bagging made is not fit for anything—except to sift ear corn out of a pumpkin crop. Choice butter is very scarce and would command an advance over our quotations. Potatoes and onions are declining under the influence of good receipts. Sweet potatoes are coming in slowly.

Memphis Wholesale Dry Goods Market.

The dry goods market has shown a rapid and flattering increase during the week. Our jobbers have been busy and stocks, which are very complete, are going off rapidly. It will be seen that most staple articles have declined since our last, and the present would seem to be a favorable time for our country merchants to lay in their supplies. The demand for staple articles in the eastern markets will no doubt advance values there very soon, and as the stocks are not large in the hands of manufacturers agents it will effect our market to some extent. The demand during the early part of the week was mostly from North Alabama and Mississippi, but within the past two or three days a number of Arkansas merchants are in town.

Memphis Wholesale Boot and Shoe Market.

The boot and shoe market has been active during the week—sales have been generally to fill small orders, but the aggregate of trade has been favorable. Buyers are mostly of the cash kind and just the sort which our dealers are now glad to see and to whom they are ready to sell on such terms as will insure a fair margin. The demand for boots has not yet opened to any extent, but with this exception all staple goods meet with ready sale. Stocks are increasing daily, though they will be still larger the variety and style of goods cannot be improved:

RIVER MATTERS.

WEATHER AND RIVERS.

We have had several days of hot, sultry weather, and yesterday was but little behind any of its predecessors for heat. The river falls daily. There is but thirty inches scant to Pine Bluff, and twenty-six inches from the Bluff to Little Rock—sixteen inches to Fort Smith. The Ohio is falling, with scant thirty-four inches to Louisville. On Phillips' bar there is barely six feet, and boats are daily arrested at that place as effectually as if it were a quarantine station. From here to Vicksburg the channel is bad, but we have so far heard of no trouble below Vicksburg, except in the case of the Henry Adkins. The Wabash is lower than it has been for twenty-five years.

Boats in Port.

Des Ark, Ozark.

MISCELLANEOUS.

On Sunday last Capt. Cole, formerly of the Sallie List, while on his way down the river with a flatboat load of hoop-poles, ran on to the wreck of the Jeff. Thompson. The bottom was torn out of his boat, and most of his cargo was lost. This wreck we have alluded to on more than one occasion since the Totten claimed to have blown it up. It is now within some two feet of the surface, and is much more dangerous than ever before. Boatmen should be cautious of this obstruction. It should be removed immediately.

The Ezra Porter, Capt. Porter, will be in port this morning, and leave at 10 a.m. for Cincinnati.

The Des Arc laid over yesterday. She will not leave for Vicksburg before Saturday.

The Belle St. Louis, Capt. Zeigler, is the Thursday packet for Cairo and St. Louis.

Capt. Frazier will back out the Nightingale this evening at 5 p.m. for St. Louis.

The fine light draft packet Ozark, Capt. Nowland, leaves for all points on the Arkansas to-day at 5 p.m. She will get through without that stream dries up totally. Sam. Wood is chief clerk, and is one of the best in the business.

The J. S. McCune, Capt. Duffer, will be in port to leave for White river on Thursday. Mr. Duff is purser, and the redoutable Geo. Fillmore is order clerk of the ship. George is old "biz" himself, and will give a good account of his talents.

The hydraulic propeller is the name given to the latest application of motive power to steam vessels. A water-wheel inside the vessel revolves in a metallic case perforated for the admission of water. Taking up the water as it enters the case, the wheel expels it again through two nozzles—one on each side above the water-line, and thus gains a power similar to the recoil of a gun. Cheapness of fuel (or gain of force in proportion to its expenditure), absence of vibration, and more complete control in rough weather, are the advantages claimed. The apparatus is said to have been successfully tested in England.

The river poets of Mobile say: "Accounts from the Bigbee are low water and plenty of caterpillars. From the Alabama quite the reverse (lower part of the river excepted), being plenty of water and no caterpillars. "Sich is life."

The St. Louis Democrat of Monday says: Only a dozen steamers at the wharf last evening. A crowd of weary hackmen waiting on the wharf and wondering why the packets don't come in. The river has dwindled away so much that it appears here to have been shorn of half its width. The tonnage now employed to bring produce to this port are prevented by the low water from bringing more than one-third or one-fourth the amount they would were navigation unobstructed. Hence, should not three or four boats be employed for every one running? Hence the cry of small-receipts, and restricted shipments south. We hear of no boat running above free from trouble and delay. The water is still declining. Hence to Cairo there is 6½ feet; below Cairo, 6 feet reported; to Keokuk, 4 feet scant; about 30 inches on the lower rapids. There is about 3 feet 9 inches in the lower Missouri, and only 3 feet between St. Joseph and Omaha, while the Illinois has gone down so low that only three or four steamers attempt its navigation. Weather sultry. We do not look for the heavy receipts of produce here until more steamers and targes are sent above, or the rivers rise.

The new bridge at Louisville, it seems, will be somewhat of an obstruction, as they all are. The Courier says of it: As we understand the case, the elevation of the bridge is to be only ninety-four feet above low water mark over the Indian chute. This forever debars such boats as the Richmond from passing the bridge. She cannot pass it even on rollers on the bottom of the river. The hight of the Richmond from the surface of the water to the tops of her chimneys is 104 feet. If her chimneys were lowered the pilot house would still interfere at any ordinary stage of water, as the top of her pilot house is sixty-four feet from the water. There are several boats now in commission, and others building, all of which will stand higher out of water than the Richmond, and at high tide, with the bottom lands overflowed, not a boat in our trade, or the Cincinnati or the Pittsburg trade, would be enabled to pass the bridge.

In England rivers are all males,
(For instance, Father Thames.)
Whoever in Columbia sails
Finds there mam'selle and dames.

Yes, there the softer sex presides,
Aquatic, I assure ye,
And Mrs. Sippy rolls her tides
Responsive to Miss Souri.

On the last trip of the Emma No. 3, from New Orleans to Cincinnati, Capt. Maratta put a woman ashore at this port for indecently exposing herself and using improper language. She had come aboard at New Orleans, and represented herself as a widow without money, and the captain agreed to carry her to Cincinnati if she would assist the stewardess in her duties. The woman arrived at Cincinnati a few days ago and brought suit before 'Squire Hanselman against Capt. Maratta for putting her ashore, claiming damages. The case was heard, and the 'squire gave judgment against the captain for $14.

The mutual system has deservedly become the most popular mode of insurance in the United States, and is the one embraced by those best informed upon the subject, and who appreciate and desire security, perpetuity and economy. In a purely mutual company the assured derives all the advantages which can be realized from an insurance, and at the lowest rates, or exact cost, paying no tribute or profits to the proprietors or stockholders for, perhaps, an inadequate capital or security. Cheapness combined with security, and a certainty of accomplishing the object in view, are the essential elements sought for, and they may be found eminently existing in a well conducted mutual. All parties insuring in this company become members of the company and are directly intrusted in its success. Call at the office of the company for full information, whereby all real estate insurers can save FIFTY per cent. of their insurance account.
